Podle nápovědy seřad' písmena do slov

The image shows a game window with a dark red background. At the top, the text "Podle nápovědy seřad' písmena do slov" is displayed in yellow. The game interface is contained within a white-bordered box. At the top of this box is a red horizontal bar with the number "100" on the right side. To the left of the red bar are two buttons: "Edit" (top) and "Start" (bottom). To the right of the red bar is a circular button with a question mark "?". Below the red bar is a large white rectangular area for the puzzle. At the bottom left of this white area is a button labeled "Clue".
