The image shows a screenshot of a quiz question within a software interface. At the top left, there is a purple button labeled "Edit". In the center, the question is titled "Q.1". On the top right, there is a purple circular icon containing a white question mark. The question text, "Co "Studio" neumí", is displayed in white on a purple rectangular background. Below the question, a horizontal line separates it from four multiple-choice options, each in a white box with a black border. The options are: A: tvořit a vypalovat DVD; B: upravovat video; C: upravovat tabulky; D: exportovat video.
